MECCA OF PATRIOTISM

THE GUILFORD BATTLE GROUND COMPANY was organized May 6th, 1887, at Greensboro, N. C.

Its object is to redeem from waste the battle field of Guilford Court House, and adorn it as a park and erect monuments thereon. It owns one hundred acres of this battle field, which is laid off in walks, drives, and avenues. There are nineteen monuments already completed, and two in course of construction. Five delightful Springs are fitted up. Lake Wilfong, on the grounds, is a lovely sheet of water. Ten thousand people attend the celebration every year. The addresses all rise to the dignity of history. The museum of Relics is a most valuable and interesting feature.

The battle was fought between Gen. Nathaniel Greene and Lord Cornwallis, March 15th, 1781. The British were driven from the state.
